

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Theme: Love one another

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Second Reading, from St. John.

Step One: Listen to the Word

Which line in this reading caught your ear? What sense do you get about God as you listen to this Word proclaimed today?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: In what ways do you experience God's love, offered to you through family, friends, and teachers?

Question for Youth: Jesus commanded us to love one another. Who is most in need of your love and kindness right now? How can you be more loving to those most in need this week?

Question for Adults: Concretely, how do you show love to others?

Celebrating God's love in Jesus Christ. Going forth to share it with all.

*Sixth Sunday of Easter
May 6, 2018*

Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to him.

A warm welcome to our visitors.
We are glad to have you among us!

If you are new to the parish, please let us know so that we can welcome you personally!

The parish is the presence of the Church in a given territory, an environment for hearing God's word, for growth in the Christian life, for dialogue, proclamation, charitable outreach, worship and celebration. In all its activities the parish encourages and trains its members to be evangelizers. It is a community of communities, a sanctuary where the thirsty come to drink in the midst of their journey, and a center of constant missionary outreach (Pope Francis, Joy of the Gospel, 28).

Dear Parishioners,

As you are all aware, we will need a new Mass schedule starting June 1, one that can be properly sustained by one priest. That schedule has now been finalized, and is published elsewhere in this bulletin. Of course, it did not fall ready-made from heaven, nor did I devise it in splendid isolation. Instead, it took shape over the past couple of months with input from many people, notably the schedule committee, staff persons, and parishioners who shared their observations especially at the meeting last Sunday. After conferring with Fr. Jeff Archer, our incoming pastor, I brought the schedule to its final form.

As it stood last week, the schedule for Saturday evening and Sunday evening was generally accepted. By way of background, there is room for only one Mass on Saturday evening, and placing it at St. Isidore's gives each parish two Masses between Saturday and Sunday. Considerations of equity were important here.

Although parishioners generally understood the virtues of a two-hour separation between Masses on Sunday morning, controversy ensued on how to do that. With one proposal (Mass at 9 and 11) the second Mass seemed too late. With the other proposal (Mass at 8:30 and 10:30) the first Mass seemed too early. Some expressed a fear that the one or the other would be too much for parishioners and might even result in harm to our parishes.

My decision took note of the negative results that the above proposals were predicted to bring. More importantly I tried to preserve the benefits and blessings of the current Sunday morning schedule, and distribute the stresses of change evenly. So I decided to split the difference. Each parish will be called upon to move just 15 minutes from its current schedule. That's fair and doable. It should entail little or no "breakage" for either parish, and leave the road wide open for community and good ministry on Sunday morning.

The new collaborative-based schedule is well-rounded and favors the development of a wider, stronger community. As you consider it, I hope you will take to heart a life-giving truth that we know by faith: Although spread between two parishes, we are one Catholic community, brothers and sisters all. We are born of one font, share one faith, are bound together by the one Eucharist we celebrate, and are sent forth to share the Gospel. May the Lord Jesus bless us and guide us as we walk the road ahead.

Fr. Walter
